PUBLIC EDUCATION & CRUELTY PREVENTION - The AHS prides itself on our involvement with educating the public on cruelty prevention and humane treatment of all animals. We provide speakers for various venues such as schools and libraries, where we encourage the public to be involved with the animal community and promote spay/neuter of pets and humane treatment of animals. We publish a regularly scheduled booklet titled The Humane News, which is distributed to thousands of homes throughout the country and is also available online. This booklet features animal stories from around the world, both humane and inhumane. It features articles on our recent achievements that we have made through rescuing animals, and is geared toward influencing people to adopt pets rather than purchasing them, treating all animals with kindness and respect, and speaking up on behalf of an animal in crisis. The booklet also features animals at all of our facilities that are available for adoption and recent news on our animals that reside at Popcorn Park. In addition to The Humane News, we also utilize social media to spread the message of humane treatment of animals and adopting your pets, as well as operating a website where all of the information on our organization can be found. The AHS also offers a wide variety of services to the public such as planning for your pets in the event that you are no longer able to care for them, and help with wills and bequests. AHS-Lacey branch operates a retirement home for dogs and cats as well. Animal Haven Farm and Kitty City are home to over 50 dogs and cats that live out their lives in peace and comfort. Our Share-A-Pet program allows the public to sponsor animals living in those areas where individuals are welcome to come in and spend time with their sponsored pet. The AHS also maintains a Zoological Society, where individuals can sponsor animals that reside in Popcorn Park. Those individuals will receive updates, photos, etc., on their sponsored animals, as well as free admission to Popcorn Park and a subscription to our magazine, The Humane News. The AHS has established a Vested Interest Fund, which provides bullet-proof vests for every working K-9 in the state of New Jersey at no cost to the law enforcement agency. The AHS also offers memorials, humane education publications such as The Humane News and ZoonooZ, and we sponsor a wide variety of programs such as spay/neutering programs and TNR programs for feral cats.
